Mons

From the Mons:

Dear Parishioners,

WELCOME Father Artur from North Sydney – formerly from Miranda Parish several years ago who also “supplied” at Gymea at that time who is here administering to the Parish whilst Mons is taking a short break. Welcome back Father.

PARKING UNDER THE HALL:

Please, please leave a drive-through to allow others to have driveway access to parking as a right of way.

THANKS to all who ensured the liturgical and spiritual success of our Easter Day ceremonies went so well.

Especially Jenni & David Gormley who assisted Grahame so well in dressing the Sanctuary between the three Liturgies.

Behind such success is a tonne of effort by many behind the scenes.

Our 56th Annual ANZAC Day Mass – Sunday 25 April:

The 9:30 am Mass will be celebrated here at Saint Catherine's.

Rear Admiral Robert William Plath AM RAN will be attending and will be delivering the Address.

MEDALS AT ANZAC MASS: Ex-Servicemen & women are asked to wear full medals to the Mass.

Relatives of deceased veterans, please wear medals of the deceased also, BUT on the right side of the chest.

This is a day of National Pride when we HONOUR those who were prepared to sacrifice their lives for the love of God, family and country.

Monsignor has arranged for some WWII vintage vehicles to be on display in the Church's forecourt on the day so there is to be no parking in front of the Church please.
